All business owners are required to obtain both a City of Miami Beach Certificate of Use and a Business Tax Receipt (formerly known as an "Occupational License") to operate a business within the City. Operating a business without a City of Miami Beach Business Tax Receipt is prohibited. For more information, call the Finance Department's Occupational Licensing Office at 305-673-7420 or 305-673-7590. For more information on Miami-Dade County's Tax Receipts, please call 305.270.4949.

A Certificate of Use (C.U.) is a pre-requisite for the issuance of a City of Miami Beach Business Tax Receipt. Inspections by the Building Department, Fire Department, Planning Department and others must occur following the submission of an application. Application can be made on-line at www.miamibeachfl.gov or in person at City Hall, Licensing Office, 1700 Convention Center Drive, first floor. Please allow sufficient time for all of the necessary department reviews

A License Fee exemption is available for business owners that are 65 years of age and older and a reduction is available for Disabled U.S. Military Veterans.

Following receipt of your City of Miami Beach Business Tax Receipt, a Business Tax Receipt from Miami-Dade County (305-270-4949) must also be obtained. Identify Your Business Structure

One of your first decisions as a business owner is to determine the legal structure of your business. Your choice determines what kind of taxes the business must pay, who's liable and what forms are necessary. There are four main choices: Sole Proprietorship, Partnership, Corporation or Limited Liability Company. In a sole proprietorship, the owner has absolute authority over all business decisions. In a partnership, two or more partners share control of the business.

Contact the Florida Department of State for more information at 850-488-9000 or visit them online at www.sunbiz.org. If you are forming an "S" corporation, you must also file with the Internal Revenue Service. Call 800-829-1040 or check online at www.irs.gov for more information.

If you are planning on obtaining a franchise, under Federal Trade Commission rules, anyone selling a franchise or business opportunity must give the buyer a detailed disclosure document. Florida law requires a seller to file certain information and pay a filing fee. For additional information when buying or selling a franchise or business opportunity, contact the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, 800-435-7352 or visit www.800helpfla.com.

A trademark or service mark may be registered with the Florida Division of Corporations for use and protection only in the state of Florida. For protection of your trademark in the entire U.S., including Florida, you must register it with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. For information about registering in Florida, call 850-245-6051 or check the Division of Corporation's website at www.sunbiz.org. For information regarding federal registration, contact the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, 800-786-9199 or visit them online at www.uspto.gov.

Before Entering into a Commercial Lease and/or Contract to Purchase

Zoning Compliance – Make sure that the type of business you propose is permissible in the location you have chosen. The Planning Department can provide you with information about which uses are permitted in the different zoning classifications throughout the City. For more information, please call the Planning Department at 305-673-7550.

Concurrency Requirements – Check to determine if your proposed project will increase the site's demand on roads, water, drainage, sewer, parks and other City services and facilities. New development and redevelopment projects and changes of use may result in the assessment of a concurrency mitigation fee. For more information, please call the Transportation and Concurrency Management Division at 305-673-7514.

Determine if your business is:

- A Change of Use, which is a change in the type of business establishment or use of the space based on the occupational codes in the City of Miami Beach. The list of codes can be found in the City Code, Section 102-379.
- A Change of Occupancy, which is a change in the classification of the business establishment or use of the space based on the Building Code and Fire Code. Each type of "use" can be categorized into an occupancy class. The Building Code and Fire Code specify requirements for each occupancy class. Existing buildings are evaluated and inspected using code requirements for existing buildings. However, when there is a change of occupancy, then the building must meet the requirements for new construction for that specific occupancy.
- A Conditional use is a use that would not be appropriate generally or without restriction throughout a particular zoning district, but would be appropriate if controlled as to number, area, location, or relation to the neighborhood.
- Required to collect Resort Tax.
- Additional information can be found on later in this guide.

Fictitious Name Registration - If your business will use any name other than the owner's legal name, or if a corporation will use a name other than its legal corporate name, a fictitious name (also referred to as D/B/A) must be registered with the state. You are responsible for collecting sales tax at the time of each sale and remitting the tax each month to the Department of Revenue. Other taxes collected by the Department include intangible taxes and corporate income taxes. Check with the Florida Department of Revenue (DOR) to find out if your product or service is taxable. If DOR tells you your service isn't taxable, we recommend that you GET IT IN WRITING. Contact: Department of Revenue 850-488-6800, 800-352-3671, 305-470-5501 or online at www.myflorida.com/dor.

Some business types also have additional requirements that must be met prior to the issuance of a business tax receipt. Information on these can be found on the following pages.

Changes of Use and Changes of Occupancy

Change of Use – This term refers to a change in the type of business establishment or use of the space based on the occupational codes in the City of Miami Beach. The list of occupational codes can be found in the City Code, Section 102-379.

Change of Occupancy – This term refers to a change in the classification of the business establishment or utilization of the space based on the Building Code and Fire Code. Each type of “use” can be categorized into an occupancy class. The Building Code and Fire Code specify requirements for each occupancy class. Existing buildings are evaluated and inspected using code requirements for existing buildings. However, when there is a change of occupancy, then the building must meet the requirements for new construction for that specific occupancy.

Certificate of Occupancy (CO) – After the construction of a new building, the Building Official issues a certificate of occupancy stating the nature of the occupancy permitted in the building. A new CO is issued if there is a change of occupancy.

Note: A change of use may or may not generate a change of occupancy. In other words, every change of use is not necessarily a change of occupancy. If the applicant is changing the use of the space or building, from the previous licensed business establishment, then the applicant should consult with the Building Department, Engineering Section and the Fire Department, Plan Review Section, both located on the second floor of City Hall.

1) Staff in the Building Dept/Engineering Section will check if there is a valid certificate of occupancy for the building, and will check if there is a change of occupancy based on the Building Code for the proposed use.

2) Staff in the Fire Dept/Plan Review section will check if there is a change of occupancy based on the Fire Code for the proposed use.

Conditional Use

A Conditional use means a use that would not be appropriate generally or without restriction throughout a particular zoning district, but would be appropriate if controlled as to number, area, location, or relation to the neighborhood.

Conditional use permit means a permit issued by the planning and zoning director and recorded in the public records of the county allowing a specific conditional use that was approved for a particular property pursuant to procedures set forth in chapter 118, article IV.

Common types of businesses that may require a conditional use are:

ACLF	Day Care	Nursing Home	Religious Institution
Parking Lot/Garage	Restaurant	School	Warehouse
Pawnshop	Gasoline Sales	Video Game Arcade	Entertainment
Outdoor and Open-Air Entertainment		Alcohol Beverage Establishment

Planning Board Review Procedure for a conditional use:

It is recommended that an applicant meet with staff before filing of Conditional Use Permit Application in order to discuss your project and avoid filing an improper or incomplete application, and to determine what additional information, if any, will be required.

- i. All required exhibits, application forms, mailing labels and appropriate fees must be submitted to the Planning Department by 12:00 noon of the submission date as per the schedule attached to the instruction manual provided by the Planning Department. INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
- ii. Since all property owners within 375 feet of your project must be notified of the project and proposed application for a Conditional Use Permit, the Planning Department will provide the applicant with one (1) copy of the required notice, as well as the required number of envelopes and one (1) set of labels. The applicant, in turn, will copy the notice, place in envelope, label and stamp (with correct postage) all envelopes and return them to the Planning Department for mailing by the return date indicated in the instruction sheet. Failure to adhere to this procedure will result in the application being removed from the agenda.
- iii. Approximately 15 days prior to the public hearing date, Planning staff will post a public notice on the property with a description of the request, time and place of the hearing. The public hearing will be advertised in the newspaper and on the City's web site. It is the responsibility of the applicant to notify the Planning Department if the public notice posted on the property is removed.
- iv. The Planning Board will consider the application during a public hearing allowing interested parties and members of the public to be heard. The Planning Board members will discuss the merits of the application and will approve or deny the request. The Board may alternatively request additional information from the applicant and request that the matter be continued at a future meeting.

After the approval of a request by the Planning Board, a final order will be completed and executed. The order will be mailed to the applicant or representative, and upon receipt, the applicant must record the order in the public records to Miami-Dade County, Florida. The original recorded order must be returned to the Planning Department before any approvals can be issued for a building permit, Certificate of Use, Certificate of Completion or Occupational License, whichever may occur first.

Resort Tax

Any rental of rooms in any hotel, motel, rooming house or apartment house or restaurant that sells food, beverages, and alcoholic beverages are required to register and remit resort tax to the City of Miami Beach.

General Business Guidelines

Signs

All signs must go through the City's design review process, managed through the Planning Department. For a sign application, contact the Planning Department at 305-673-7550.

Building permits are required for all exterior signs and permanent window signs. Signs are an important part of your business identity and the collective image of the City. For this reason, every effort is made to promote effective and harmonious signs. Signs must meet color, size and location requirements as outlined in the City's Zoning Ordinance.

Businesses are allowed the following: one primary sign, limited generally to 20 square feet; window signs in six-inch letter for the business name and address; hours of operation, and telephone number of the business in two-inch letters. Signs that require repair must also go through the design approval and permit process.

Banners, flags, sandwich boards, balloons, signs on parked vehicles, and other items designed to attract attention to a location are generally prohibited, except as provided for in the Zoning Ordinance.

Real estate signs, advertising the rent or sale of a property, must also meet color, size and location requirements. A permit must be obtained from the Finance Department's Occupational License Office located on the first floor in City Hall, or call 305-673-7420.

Paint

A permit is required to paint the exterior of your business. Colors must be approved by the City. Copies of the color chart are available at the Planning Department, 305-673-7550.

Design Review Approval

Most building permits require design review approval. Depending on the scope or complexity of the work proposed, your permit will be approved by either the Planning Department staff or one of the City's Review Boards. If Board approval is required, projects that are located within one of the City's historic districts will be presented before the City's Historic Preservation Board. Projects not located in a historic district will be presented to the Design Review Board. For more information, call the Planning Department at 305-673-7550.

Building Permits

Building permits are required for new construction, additions, and alterations of commercial space, multi-family or single-family residences, or changes to an interior or exterior that will require construction, demolition, or rehabilitation of the space. This includes any electrical, plumbing, air-conditioning, heating, or other work. Obtaining permits assures that the work meets the Florida Building Code and all applicable regulations. The permit process offers the opportunity to have the plans reviewed by professional zoning and design review staff, as well as code administrators, and includes inspections by certified experts who will make sure that the work is safely and professionally completed.

Hiring a Contractor

The permit process requires that the contractor you select is certified, authorized, has a business tax receipt and insured to perform the work and that the contractor has obtained all of the permits required prior to starting the work.

Examples of work requiring permits (not all-inclusive):

Windows or doors installation	Signs (including window signs)

The frequency of service should be sufficient to ensure the business area is clean at all times. The City is served by five solid waste franchisees. For more information, call the City of Miami Beach Sanitation Department at 305-673-7616.

Promoting Your Business

The distribution of commercial newsletters, flyers, posters, cards, stickers, etc... on vehicles, light poles, bus benches and public property are prohibited and carry expensive fines and penalties. In addition, commercial handbills that result in litter can also result in code compliance violations. For more information, call the Division of Code Compliance at 305-673-7555.

Noise Ordinance

The City of Miami Beach has implemented a noise ordinance that regulates "unreasonable, unnecessary, excessive and unusual noises." A warning and fine schedule is applied to violations of the ordinance. Special restrictions also apply during construction. Film, Print and Special Event Permits

The City of Miami Beach is a major venue for the film, fashion, print and music industries, as well as a host of many important special events. If planning to open an office in the City, all of the applicable procedures to opening a business must be followed. Film, print, and special event permits are issued for public property only. Activities taking place on private property do not require a permit as long as those activities (including vehicles) are completely self-contained on the property. Activities taking place on private property that request City services are required to obtain a permit. For more information, call the Tourism and Cultural Development Department at 305-673-7070 or 305-673-7577 for permits and assistance.

Market Research

The City of Miami Beach Economic Development Department maintains databases of all key economic indicators and market research, including local business inventories and densities; real estate sales; private capital investment and private development; resident and visitor demographics; visitor behavior and spending trends; hotel occupancy and rates, employment and unemployment; and food, alcohol and hotel room sales. In some cases, this information is not only available for the city as a whole, but also by neighborhood and street/business district.

Confidentiality

According to Florida Statutes, upon written request from a business, the records of an Economic Development agency that are related to the intentions of a business to relocate to or expand in Florida are confidential and exempt from public records.

Incentives

Business incentive programs, financial assistance, tax assistance and training programs have encouraged many domestic and international companies to relocate or expand their operations in Miami-Dade County – which also offers a favorable tax structure. Assistance is available through the State of Florida, Miami-Dade County and the City of Miami Beach. Florida's status as a "right-to-work" state is an additional asset when recruiting or relocating employees to Miami-Dade County.
